Commenting on the results, Mr. V.S. Ganesh, Managing Director, Page Industries Limited said, "We are pleased to deliver double-digit revenue growth of 11.5% in Q2 FY27, driven by healthy volume growth, premiumisation and strong consumer response to our new launches. While raw material costs remained elevated, our profitability has remained within our planned range. With positive demand trends, strong brand momentum, an exciting pipeline of new product ranges and ongoing initiatives to improve operational efficiency, we look ahead with confidence."*

Outlook and Trends:

As the festive season gets under way, we expect a healthy lift in consumer demand over the coming months. Trusted brands, a fresh line-up of products and a wider retail presence leave us well placed to capture this momentum. Expanded manufacturing capacity, streamlined processes and technology-led productivity gains will help us serve demand faster and at lower cost, while we stay vigilant on input costs.
